

Wildcat Families,

Good morning! Today is an important day. Please be sure to carefully read below for a few important reminders about today, Tuesday, September 2nd.

- Tonight at 6:30pm is our second parent information session. Here is the link to join - <https://us.bbcollab.com/guest/4fe5031367dc44f8beb1d35b6f1bffe2>
- Student schedules are available today in StudentVUE and ParentVUE. See the links below if you need help accessing your SIS account.
 - Information and resources for accessing SIS
 - Video demonstration for creating a ParentVUE account
- Teachers will be sending class links to students' fcpschools.net email accounts throughout the day. Students must be sure to check their fcpschools.net email account each day moving forward. These links are used by students to join each of their classes.
 - Class links are labeled "Blackboard Collaborate Invitee." There is now a tab in the student Gmail account labeled BBCU Links, which will help organize the links. Click on the tab in the left column to filter the class links.
 - Use this link to make a copy of the bell schedule
 - View this video demonstration on how to access your class links and organize them into a schedule
 - Video demonstration for tools in Blackboard Collaborate Ultra
- Tomorrow, Thursday, September 3 at 11:00am is the Virtual Student Orientation. Students are to login to their first period class where information will be shared. Students join the class at 11:00 using the class link from their first period teacher found in their fcpschools.net email account.

If you need further tech support, please visit this link. Thank you for your efforts in being prepared for the start of school! We look forward to connecting with you!
