

FINANCIAL AID APPLICATION CHECKLIST

Use this checklist to plan what you need to do to apply for and receive financial aid for the 2019-20 academic year. Due to limited resources, student aid is often awarded on a first-come, first-served basis. Many of these checklist items have deadline dates which vary from school to school, so you should indicate the date by which you will need to complete each item for each school. Check off each Action Item as you complete it. You can get help for many of these Action Items from each college’s website or financial aid office, your guidance or college counselor, or your local reference librarian. Make copies and complete this checklist for each school to which you are planning to apply.

_____ Obtain a Federal Student Aid (FSA) ID for use throughout the federal aid process during and after college from the U.S. Department of Education's FSA ID website at fsaid.ed.gov/npas/index.htm. The FSA ID confirms an individual's identity and should only be created by the owner of the FSA ID. Since the FSA ID is used as a legal signature and enables access to numerous U.S. Department of Education websites, it should never be shared with others.

_____ File your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA®) as soon as possible on or after October 1, 2018. You may complete your FAFSA using the www.fafsa.gov website or a mobile app. Alternatively, you may print a PDF FAFSA at www.fafsa.ed.gov/options.htm, or obtain a paper FAFSA by calling the Federal Student Aid Information Center at 1-800-433-3243 or 334-523-2691. For the hearing impaired, the telecommunications device for the deaf (TTY) line is 1-800-730-8913. A PDF or paper FAFSA must be mailed for processing, which may cause delays.

_____ Complete and submit all institutional financial aid application materials before all deadlines.

_____ Apply for state financial aid before the application deadline and promptly reply to any requests for additional information.

_____ Promptly respond to any school requests for additional information or documentation, such as copies of tax return transcripts, verification worksheets, or other forms.

_____ Review your Student Aid Report (SAR), which is sent to you via email or postal mail after you file the FAFSA, for accuracy. If necessary, correct inaccurate items online at www.fafsa.gov or on the paper SAR, if you receive one.

_____ Read all application materials and financial aid notifications. Most financial aid funds have conditions for receipt and renewal, such as earning a certain grade point average (GPA) or being enrolled full time. Details are important, so be sure to avoid costly mistakes!

_____ Promptly sign and return your financial aid award letter if your school requires your signed acceptance of the aid being offered. Some schools give students the option of accepting financial aid awards electronically. Contact the financial aid office if you have any questions about your award.

_____ Notify the financial aid office if you have applied for assistance, but no longer wish to attend the school.

Complete the promissory note for any loan(s) you are offered and accept. The financial aid office may have you sign either an electronic or paper promissory note. If you do not want to use an electronic promissory note, ask the financial aid office for a paper version. Check with the financial aid office regarding any loan counseling you must complete before you may receive the loan proceeds.

Important note: Before you sign the promissory note, make sure you read and understand all of your rights and responsibilities. Remember this is a source of financial assistance that must be repaid!

If you are awarded Federal Work-Study (FWS), find out how students are placed in FWS positions and what FWS positions are available, including descriptions of job responsibilities and wages.

Promptly notify the financial aid office of any private scholarship, grant, or other type of student aid you have received or expect to receive.

Keep copies of all application materials in your records for future reference.
