From the article above: "As of March 31st, more than 17 schools had adopted new policies, including Tufts University, Boston University, Davidson College, Scripps College and the whole public university system in Oregon. This is evolving every day and you can visit www.fairtest.org for a current list of schools that have test-optional admission."

Stay informed on the FCPS Distance Learning Plan and COVID-19 updates here: <https://www.fcps.edu/>

For updates and information on standardized and AP testing, visit <https://www.collegeboard.org/> or www.actstudent.org.

Still need to complete your FAFSA? FCPS non-profit partner College Access Fairfax is available to help! Their Champions page has a listing of people you can contact with your questions.

Questions about your college admissions decisions? As a service to students and families, the National Association for College Admission Counseling has created an online tool that is a central resource on changes to the college admission process due to the coronavirus outbreak. The tool updates automatically as they receive input from postsecondary institutions: nacacnet.org/college-admission-status-coronavirus
