NEWS & INFORMATION

George Mason University's FAFSA Priority Filing Deadline is January 15, which is earlier than in previous years. For priority consideration of limited State and Institutional grant funds, students must submit their FAFSA and all verification and other requested documents to Mason by January 15th each year. For more information, contact Mason's Office of Student Financial Aid.

The Virginia Department of Labor and Industry Division of Registered Apprenticeships is hosting CTE Career Connections on January 17 from 6-8pm at the Edward L. Kelly Leadership Center (14715 Bristow Road, Manassas). Over 100 companies have been invited to attend to meet with Northern Virginia Career and Technical Education (CTE) students. These are companies that can employ students as both Youth Registered Apprentices as well as Registered Apprentices upon high school graduation. According to the database, there are more than 400 apprenticeships available in our immediate area. Explore the database here: <https://www.doli.virginia.gov/apprenticeship/>. For more information on apprenticeships or the CTE Career Connections event, contact Crystal Thrower at crystal.thrower@doli.virginia.gov or 703-392-0900 Ext 102.

The Healthcare College and Career Fair will be held on Friday, January 25 from 9am-12pm in the Falls Church High School Little Gym. Representatives from medical college programs and the healthcare industry will be on hand to answer questions about education and employment opportunities. Healthcare careers are projected to add nearly 4 million jobs by 2026, about one third of all new jobs, and will be the largest employment sector. Free admission for all FCPS high school students.
