

Club	Sponsor	Email Address:	Description:
Active Minds	Kimberly Sholtis & Jake Uden	jguden@fcps.edu	Active Minds encourages students to talk openly about mental health by establishing positive and healthy behaviors and systems of support in their lives and communities.
American Sign Language Club	Samantha Robinson	srobinson@fcps.edu	American Sign Language Club teaches students sign language in a fun way! Each meeting has a different theme and students learn words and phrases related to that theme. We then play games to remember each sign!
Anime/Gaming Culture Club	Michelle Pridmore	mlpridmore@fcps.edu	We watch anime or have a gaming day.
App Development	Michelle Pridmore	mlpridmore@fcps.edu	We learn how to develop apps teaching the code behind it.
Artificial Intelligence	Michelle Pridmore	mlpridmore@fcps.edu	We teach how to program robots
Asian Students Association (ASA)	Autumn Koo & Hanna Langstein	atkoo@fcps.edu; hblangstein@fcps.edu	We aim to advocate, promote, and educate others on the various Asian cultures represented at Centreville High School. Student members participate in volunteering events that promote Asian culture, develop their leadership skills, and learn from mentors and guest speakers of Asian descent to support the development of our Asian members of our school community.
Best Buddies	Kathleen McGuire	kamcguire2@fcps.edu	Best Buddies is an international organization that endeavors to create life long friendships between typically developing teens and teens with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities. We hold monthly meetings and organize 2 out of school social activities monthly for club members.
Casually Cville	Lauren White	LAWhite1@fcps.edu	Through discussing this content, the Casually Cville club hopes to broaden students' mindsets and promote more in-depth day to-day thinking.
Centreville eSports	Peter Roden	pcroden@fcps.edu	Centreville eSports, currently a club, seeks to be an inclusive Varsity experience to catch those students missed by athletic sports. We provide an environment where students can play the video games they're already in to, but on teams formed by the student body! Benefits of the program include coaching, serious competition, building of Team Spirit, and even exposure to college scholarship opportunities!

Centreville Hockey Club	Baird	gbbaird@fcps.edu	A club for students who love to play hockey.
Chess Club	Jim Novak	jhnovak@fcps.edu	Come join us Thursday afternoons after school to enjoy the great game of chess. Improve your critical thinking and strategic planning skills. All skill and ability levels welcome from beginner to advanced players. The club is free and there are no dues, fees, or sign-up (commitment) required, just stop by for a game when you're available! Instruction available for beginners and newcomers and all equipment is provided. Snacks usually provided as well. Social networking and tournament opportunities are available for those who are interested.
Class Board 2021	Kalli Chaney	knchaney@fcps.edu	Class Board 2021 creates and/or supports fundraisers and activities to build community among their peers.
Clean the World Club	Christina Lee	CLee2@fcps.edu	Students raise funds to buy hygienic products (toothbrush, toothpaste, soap, lotion, etc.) to donate to the Clean the World Organization. Students learn to make fancy, homemade soap to sell as part of fundraising.
Coalition of Racial Equality	Samantha Robinson	srobinson@fcps.edu	C.O.R.E strives to raise awareness of diversity within the Centreville community. We do fundraisers and come up with ideas to help improve the well being of the impoverished, our school, and the surrounding Centreville community.
Computer Science Honors Society	Michelle Pridmore	mlpridmore@fcps.edu	We compete in coding competitions and work with middle school students
CVHS Speech and Debate	Alison Koehnke	amkoehnke@fcps.edu	Students in our club learn the importance of effective public communication through participation in public speaking and/or public forum debate. The club meets weekly after school where students craft and practice their speeches, as well as learn argumentation techniques through the development of debate cases based on current events. Students compete in VHSL-sanctioned events and may also compete in WACFL, which provides the opportunity to compete on the national level.

CyberPatriots/Cyber Security Club	Cindy Belsky	cdbelsky@fcps.edu	CyberPatriot is the National Youth Cyber Education Program created by the Air Force Association (AFA). Here at CVHS we have 4 teams that are part of the national competition. In addition we participate in online Capture the Flag (CTF) competitions.
DECA	Miranda Schick	MSchick@fcps.edu	DECA is a co-curricular organization for students enrolled in a Marketing course.
Dungeons & Dragon (D & D) Club	Christina Lee	CLee2@fcps.edu	Students learn about and play Dungeons & Dragons with different groups and quests.
Environmental Conservation Coalition	Lauren White	LAWWhite1@fcps.edu	Students raise awareness about local and global environmental issues and how individuals can impact those issues.
FBLA	Albana Celepia	aacelepia@fcps.edu	Future Business Leaders of America(FBLA) is a co-curricular club that is open to students interested in different areas of business. It inspires and prepares students to become community-minded business leaders in a global society through relevant career preparation and leadership experiences. Members can participate in academic competitions and demonstrate their business expertise at regional, state, and national competitive events. Club activities provide students volunteer opportunities, and help resume building and other job readiness skills.
Finance Club	Baird	gbbaird@fcps.edu	This club meets to discuss financial decisions, particularly investments.
Future Voters of America	David Campbell	dccampbell@fcps.edu	FVA seeks to promote a culture of civility in addressing controversial issues of our time. Meetings involve becoming informed about the facts of controversial issues, identifying areas of common concern, and constructive conversation over differences.

German Culture Club	Melissa Rife	mmrife1@fcps.edu	The German Culture Club is a club that meets to celebrate the customs and traditions of the German-speaking world. It is open to anyone interested in learning about culture, even if they are not currently enrolled in German.
German Honor Society	Melissa Rife	mmrife1@fcps.edu	The German Honor Society identifies German students who have distinguished themselves as high-achieving. We come together to do service for the German programs of Liberty Middle School and CVHS.
Girl Up!	Tara Claassen	tbclaassen@fcps.edu	Girl Up! is a club that promotes girls to empower themselves and other girls around them to tackle life's everyday issues. The club discusses obstacles that girls face such as education, health, safety/violence, leadership and having their voices be heard on both a local and global scale.
Girls Who Code	Michelle Pridmore	mlpridmore@fcps.edu	This is a club for girls to join to learn how to code in a non-intimidating setting
Human Rights Club	Rife, VanLahr, Uden, Crain	lisa.vanlahr@fcps.edu	The Human Rights Club seeks to provide students with the chance to learn about human rights, teaching the importance of respecting other's rights, and empower CVHS students to educate others on the need to respect differences.
Hunger Awareness Leaders of Tomorrow	David Campbell	dccampbell@fcps.edu	HALT raises awareness of hunger issues in our community, assists in collecting food for needy students and their families, and seeks to involve the larger community in hunger alleviation programs.

Indian Student Association (ISA) sometimes called MAAZA	Margot Brown	msbrown2@fcps.edu	ISA is a wonderful group of students who want to bring cultural awareness to the school and help students feel like their different cultures are being honored in the building. Although the club is named for Indian students, they welcome all students to join and be a part of their group. They sponsor the International Night in March, where many students perform their native country's dances, wear their native dress, and bring in foods from around the world, for everyone to enjoy.
KAST (Kids Are Scientists, Too)	Lauren White	LAWWhite1@fcps.edu	Students work with elementary school students and perform labs and scientific experiments to get elementary school-aged children interested in STEM.
Key Club International	Marina Taboada	Mtaboada@fcps.edu	Key club provides opportunities for leadership and volunteering while helping the community.
Math Honor Society	Susan Rigby	serigby@fcps.edu	MHS members must be currently enrolled in Precalculus or above and have a 3.8 GPA in math courses and an overall 3.7 GPA to remain active in the organization. At monthly meetings, members participate in math-related activities or hear presentations from adults currently working in math-related fields. Members are also required to tutor other CVHS students before or after school and in the Math Learning Center during their lunch period.
Model United Nations	James We	jjwe@fcps.edu	Model United Nations is a simulation of the UN General Assembly, introducing students to the world of diplomacy, negotiation, and decision making. In MUN, you will become ambassadors of countries and debate current issues in order to resolve problems that affect the world today
Music Composition Club	Bill Burke	wburke@fcps.edu	A club where students connect to work on creating music of all genres.

Muslim Student Association	Jonathan Rutz	jerutz@fcps.edu	MSA is a club that brings together the school's diverse Muslim population, as well as students interested in learning more about the Islamic faith and culture. The club meets once a month for fun activities and competes in the annual DC area student Muslim association competition.
National Art Honor Society	Katharine Search	kmsearchkurt@fcps.edu	To inspire and recognize students who have shown an outstanding ability and interest in art. We strive to aid members in attaining the highest standards in art scholarship, character and service. Entry into the Art Honor Society is by art teacher recommendation only.
National English Honor Society	Jennie Hwangpo	jhwangpo@fcps.edu	The NEHS motto, "gelast sceal mid are," is Old English for: "duty goes with honor." The motto represents one of the earliest forms of our language—it affirms and celebrates an obligation to use one's gifts in service to others. Service to peers, school, and community is part and parcel of the NEHS mission—and, indeed, in the grammatical structure of the Old English phrase, "duty" actually precedes "honor."
National Honor Society	Noel Miller	noemiller@fcps.edu	Club for students with a 3.5 GPA or higher. Stresses scholarship, leadership, character, and service.
Nepali Association Club	Pearl Lee	pjlee@fcps.edu	This club is for students of Nepali heritage or for students that have an interest in Nepali culture. Club members meet monthly to share food, have fun, raise awareness, and plan community service activities.

Red Cross Club	Mary Rubin	mkrubin@fcps.edu	The Red Cross club is committed to raising awareness about how to meet the challenges that arise in various emergency situations. Students participate in public service opportunities such as holding information sessions for recommended actions in an emergency, and they provide assistance during CVHS and American Red Cross blood drives. Money made during fundraisers is directed to disaster relief organizations, and they also supply direct material support when a national or local emergency occurs.
Robotics	Oliver Small	oasmall@fcps.edu	Robotics is a STEM oriented team that competes in the FIRST Robotics Competition and FIRST Tech Challenge. Our focus is the spread of STEM education throughout the Centreville community and beyond. We participate in many STEM education activities and volunteer many hours to working with younger children in an attempt to peak their interest in pursuing STEM as they enter middle and high school and beyond.
Scholastic/Academic Team	Katherine Croote and Sam Robinson	kncroote@fcps.edu	This club is a VHSL academic team. It competes at least twice a year on "It's Academic" and the VHSL Scholastic Bowl.
Science Honors Society	Ashley Saccomando/Peter Roden	pccroden@fcps.edu	Science Honors Society is a service based club aimed at tutoring and exploring science internships/opportunities. In addition, members organize the Science Bowl Team as well as students interested in competing in the Biology, Chemistry, and Physics Olympiad contests. Eligible students may apply in October of their 11th grade year.

Science Olympiad	Ashley Saccomando	ajsaccomando@fcps.edu	Science Olympiad is a club for students interested in competing in tournaments that have events in many fields of science, engineering, and technology. Students prepare in teams to compete in the different events that have tests as well as lab based tasks. Engineering events have students design an apparatus that is tested at the tournaments.
Social Studies Honor Society	Baird	gbbaird@fcps.edu	For high achieving social studies students who enjoy talking about the subject.
Spanish Honor Society	Kimberly Sholtis & Barbara Haber	kmsholtis@fcps.edu	Spanish Honor Society promotes the study and use of Spanish in the community. Membership is by invitation. Students are invited to apply when they are enrolled in Spanish 3 or higher. There is a GPA and service requirement.
The Thespian Society	Mike Hudson	gmhudson@fcps.edu	AN honor society for Theater Arts. Students may join if they have an interest in Theater Arts. PArticipation can lead to induction into the Honor society.
Tri-M Music Honor Society	Susan Rigby	serigby@fcps.edu	Tri-M is a service-oriented music honor society. Tri-M members must exhibit excellent character, service, and leadership, and must be currently enrolled in at least one music class at CVHS, maintain an "A" music GPA and and a "B" overall GPA, and complete 2 hours of music-related service in order to be accepted into the organization. Members attend 3 meetings throughout the year which are centered on music-related themes and service, and all members perform a solo/duet/ensemble performance in front of their peers.
UNICEF	Marisa Nicholson	menicholson@fcps.ed	We raise money to help provide health care for kids around the world.

Video Editing	Michelle Pridmore	mlpridmore@fcps.edu	We learn about how to video, best techniques to use and share videos.
Wildcats vs Cancer	Hanna Langstein	hblangstein@fcps.edu	The club is focused on working with organizations that support families affected by pediatric cancer. Activities include fundraising, volunteering at hospitals (organized by the hospital) and other organizations, and making crafts to donate to organizations. In May, the club puts on a Festival to Fight Cancer at the CVHS stadium to raise money for the organization they've selected and been approved to raise funds for. This year, it's DC Candelighters.
Women in Math Society	Susan Rigby	serigby@fcps.edu	WIMS encourages young girls to pursue their interest in math and STEM-related careers. At monthly meetings members hear from women currently working in STEM fields, learn about women's contributions to math throughout history, and participate in math-related activities. Our members must complete math-related service requirements by tutoring younger students in math or volunteering at math/STEM fairs in the community.