

ACADEMIC ADVISING AND COURSE REGISTRATON

2025-2026

THIS IS ABOUT YOU

- The course selections you make now help determine YOUR options after high school.
- Take courses that YOU are interested in-not just what your friends or parents suggest.
- Challenge yourself each year but find your balance between academics and your social/emotional well being.
- We are here to help!

FACTORS TO CONSIDER

- What is the diploma type I want? – Standard or Advanced
- What subjects interest me the most? – Think of what you want to do after high school and your interests.
- Do I have a strong foundation for the next course? – Consider your previous level of success in that subject area.
- Am I ready for the challenge of AP and Honors? – Consider your study habits.
- Are there pre-requisites for the courses I want to take? Pre-requisites are requirements you need before you take a course.
 - Grade Level (Juniors and Seniors only)
 - Previous Course Requirement (Art 1 before Art 2)
 - Teacher Recommendations
 - Auditions (Band, Chorus, Orchestra, Guitar)

APPLICATION REQUIRED

Please note the following courses require an application:

- Leadership Training/SGA
- Advanced Composition
- Teachers for Tomorrow
- Internship

COURSE SELECTION CONSIDERATIONS

- Balance! Make sure you have time for class requirements and time for extracurricular activities, work, family and friends!
- Challenging yourself. Where are your interests? Is it time to take an Honors or AP class?
- Teacher feedback and suggestions
- Choose wisely! Don't select classes based on who is teaching the course or what your friends are taking.
- Classes fill quickly. Class changes AFTER registration has closed may not be possible.

SCHEDULING/ COURSE SELECTION TIMELINE

- Students enter draft course selections into Student Vue on January 16th
 - Backup electives are important!
- Students meet with their counselor between 1/21- 2/28
- After meeting with your counselor, course selections are locked and can only be corrected through an email to your counselor by March 12th
- Freeze for staffing decisions 3/13- 4/20
- Changes from 4/20 to 6/6 are allowed on a space available basis
- As of June 6th, all course selections are FINAL
