NEWS & INFORMATION

Career & Education Expo for Military Families (HS) - January 18, 2023 from 10am-2pm at Ft. Belvoir's National Museum of the United States Army. This event is for transitioning service members, military spouses, dependents, and veterans. There will be 12 colleges present, and 12 agencies that will be hiring for summer and other employment. The event will share how to apply for GI Bill and Yellow Ribbon Programs. For more information and to register, see the event flier.

MEFA is presenting a webinar on Monday, December 12 at 6:30pm for Spanish-speaking students planning for the future. Information and guidance will be provided for undocumented students applying to and paying for college, including details on DACA, admissions standards at public and private universities, and resources to help cover college costs. The entire webinar will be in Spanish. Register here.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

Wegmans is hiring at their Fairfax and Chantilly locations. Students can start as early as age 15 as a cashier. Students 16+ have more variety in hiring options (food service worker, stocker, etc). Pay starts at $15/hour with an extra 50% on Sundays and holidays. Great benefits and flexibility! Apply at <https://jobs.wegmans.com/>.
